Dowell received his 30-year service pin at the LaGrange City Council meeting Tuesday (8/27) night.

He has served in several different capacities within the Water Department. Dowell began his career as a Water Distribution laborer in 1989 and is now a Water Service Worker where his chief responsibilities include servicing meters and locating water mains.

Walt has been commended multiple times regarding his interactions with customers. His elite customer service and proficiency in his field ensure customer satisfaction.

Although Mr. Dowell usually works independently, his co-workers regularly compliment his positive attitude, willingness to work with others and provide assistance when necessary.

When not at work Mr. Dowell enjoys preaching, spending time with his grandbabies and his high school sweetheart whom he has been married to for 38 years.

“Walter Dowell is a huge asset to the Water Division and adds great value to the City of LaGrange,” said Water Supervisor Jason Clifton. “We thank him for his dedicated service.”
